

The "Do Not Call" initiative is one of the best things to happen to our family. My husband and I have two young kids, and we both work while our kids are in preschool all day. We have only 2 hours in the evenings for quality time, which is filled with constant sales calls, one after another. Letting the phone ring without answering is equally distracting. Please do not eliminate this Act, our time in the evenings is too valuable to us.